

Mesa View Times

6th and 7th grade Awards Night

Inside this issue:

Yearbook signing party/Distribution	2
Student Highlight	2
Minimum Days	2
8th Grade Awards Night	3
Staff Highlight	3
Last Day of School	3

This year for the 6th and 7th graders there awards assembly will be on June 2nd, 2015. It is separate from the 8th graders because the 6th and 7th graders will be returning to this amazing school while the 8th graders will be moving on to high school. Students will be getting awards like perfect attendance, academic achievement, which are students who excelled in their classes obtaining straight A's in all of their classes, and also citizenship award, which is for students who help the campus look nice and help the staff with what ever they need help with, while still doing their school assignments and catching up when needed to.

Special points of interest:

- Last Day of school figure out when its gonna be
- A Mom/Dad that picks up a student from MVMS Tell you when minimum days are

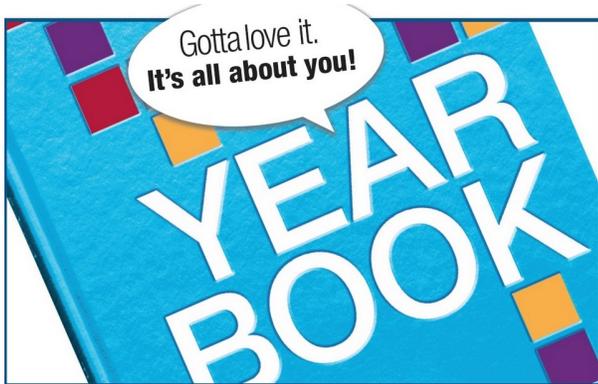

Band Knott's Trip

On May 28,2015 the band students taught by Mr. Kane will be going to Knott's Berry Farm in Buena Park. They have earned this trip for trying hard to make every concert perfect and sound like a symphony. There going to meet Snoopy and be able to go on terrifying rides like the Silver Bullet.

Yearbook Signing party/Distribution

On June 2nd there will be a yearbook signing party for students who ordered a yearbook for the 2014-2015 school year. Yearbook students hand you your yearbook and sighs it. On June 4th students who didn't go to the signing party get there yearbooks.

Student Highlight

" The old believed everything, the middle - aged suspected everything, and the young know everything"

-Oscar Wilde

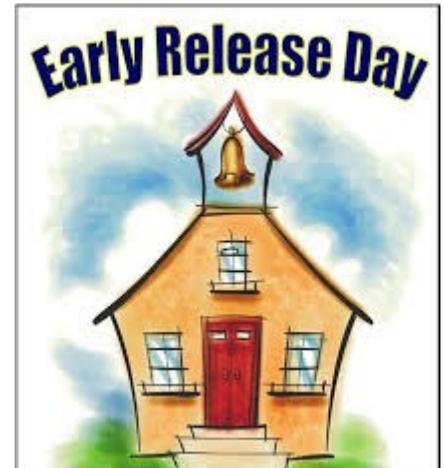

Today on May 27th is the last day to turn in speeches. One student named Alison Hastings is did a speech for the 8th grade awards night. Her speech is about motivation and how its been for the students at Mesa

View Middle School for the 8th graders. It is still unknown to her and all the students who turned in their speeches who get picked to read their speeches on awards night.

Minimum Days

Starting on June 4 there are going to be minimum days going through June 9th. Mesa View students will be entering at school at the same time 7:40a but will be coming out of school at 12:20pm instead of 2:15. So let parents know the days you guys are going to have minimum days.

8th Grade Awards Night

On June 6th 8th graders will be having their awards night. It is going to be at 6:00pm and ending at 8:30pm. Students who got their speeches picked will be saying them. Also our principals will be talking to the students and their parents about the school year. The students will be reciting their speeches on Monday June 1 during their US History class. It will take up half of their period to get prepared.

On Tuesday, May 26 Mr.

Staff Highlight

Peters and other teachers did a WEB training day. Where the old WEB leaders would train the new WEB leaders. They had a lot of fun, doughnuts, and played many games. Old WEB leaders were teaching the new Web leaders what to do and what games to play. It was just an all around fun two periods. Ms. Fountain is taking over WEB while Mr. Peters retires.

Love is a friendship caught on fire. It is quiet understanding, mutual confidence, sharing and forgiving. It is loyalty through good and bad times. It settles for less than perfection and makes allowances for human weakness.

-Ann Landers

Last Day of School

here at Mesa View Middle School, The 8th graders will be leaving this school after this day and the 6th and 7th graders will be coming back next year.

This day will be filled with tears and very many goodbyes from student to student and student to teacher. June 9th will also be a minimum day with periods 1-6. This

On June 9th this school year will come to an end